

2 The 5 boroughs of New York City

1 The Statue of Liberty, standing on Liberty Island.

3 Central Park is one of the best-known parks in the world. It's the nicest place to meet New Yorkers on a Sunday, either running, skating, boating, enjoying an open-air concert, visiting the zoo or just relaxing!

4 Manhattan Island

- 5 The Met (Metropolitan Museum of Art) is one of the four biggest museums in the world. Its permanent collection contains more than 2 million works of art. Have a look on www.metmuseum.org

- 6 Madison Square Garden, or MSG, is the world's most famous sports and music arena. Check out the program on www.thegarden.com

- 7 Times Square is the liveliest part of the City. It is known for its Broadway theaters, cinemas and huge neon signs. See your favorite stars on stage or on screen!
